

The Implant Centre CPD Conference – University of Sussex

Developments of Dentistry

This is to certify that

Name: Rachel Taylor

GDC No.: 192496

Attended a conference on Wednesday 20th September 2023 on the following topics:

X-Ray exams and reporting – Simon Harvey

Aims: The presentation aims to look at X-ray dosing and examination to improve reporting skills across 2D imaging

Learning Objectives: Upon completion of this lecture members of the dental team should be able to

- Explain X-ray exams and doses to patients
- Formulate a reporting template for dental imaging

GDC Developmental Outcomes: C

Level 2 Child Protection and Safeguarding Adults at Risk Refresher – Jo Russell

Aim: Safeguard the children and potential adults at risk in your care

Learning Objectives: Upon completion of this lecture members of the dental team should be able to

Look at current statistics on child protection • Know how to spot the signs and indicators of abuse in children and adults • Know who to report concerns to • Discuss the 5 principles of the Mental Capacity Act, how to apply them & consent for treatment • Look at the 4 forms of abuse in children and the 10 forms of abuse in adults • Think about domestic abuse and signposting

GDC Developmental Outcomes: A, C

To give the delegate more confidence when it comes spotting signs of abuse and where to report it.

Developments in Dentistry – TIC and CDL

Aim: To update delegates on policies and treatments available for their patients

Learning Objectives:

- Understanding new guidelines and classifications in periodontics
- Look at how Masseter Botox can relieve the symptoms of Bruxism
- Discuss the new techniques and materials in dental restorations

GDC Developmental Outcomes: C

This conference is supported by:

The Implant Centre CPD Conference – University of Sussex

Page 2

Adhesive bridges - a predictable alternative to implants? – Arijit Ray-Chaudhuri

Aim: To improve the dental teams' knowledge on what makes adhesive bridges predictable

Learning Objectives: Upon completion of this lecture members of the dental team should be able to

- To identify the factors that increase the predictability of adhesive bridges
- To identify the factors that decrease the predictability of adhesive bridges
- To provide practical guidance on what the dental team can do to undertake predictable adhesive bridges

GDC Developmental Outcomes: A,C

Orthognathic update & the evolution of surgery for sleep apnoea – Ken Sneddon

Aim: Aims: outline the prevalence and relevance of obstructive sleep apnoea in terms of its medical and social implications

Learning Objectives: Upon completion of this lecture members of the dental team should be able to:

- Look at the various surgical procedures for its management
- Understand role of orthognathic surgery in sleep apnoea
- Know the different approaches to treatment

GDC Developmental Outcomes: A, C

This training CPD course meets the criteria set by the GDC for Verifiable CPD and I confirm the information contained is full and accurate.

Bill Schaeffer – Director of The Implant Centre Limited

This conference is supported by:

